

FIREWOOD ALERT

Help stop the movement of exotic pests—

DON'T MOVE FIREWOOD!

Exotic insects such as Emerald ash borer, Asian longhorned beetle, Gypsy moth, and Sirex wood wasp threaten West Virginia's forest land. These invasive pests become established when infested firewood is transported.

- Use local sources of firewood
- Do not take firewood home
- If you brought firewood from home:

Burn It ! Do not take it with you!
For more information, contact:

National Park Service at 1-304-465-6537
or visit

USDA Forest Service at www.na.fs.fed.us/fhp

Emerald Ash
Borer

Asian Longhorned
Beetle

Gypsy Moth

Sirex
Wood Wasp

HELP STOP INVASIVE PESTS